The Rules of the Court of Judicature (NI) 1980
(formerly titled: Rules of the Supreme Court (NI) 1980)

SR 1980/346

Up-dated to 1 Jan 2017

In compiling the version of the Rules the compiler has sought to correct errors in the loose leaf ‘Red Book’ version, and errors in the Rules themselves, and to up-date statutory references, but noting where a statutory provision has been repealed and, where appropriate, by inserting in square brackets a reference to the corresponding provision of the statute which replaces it and which has effect by virtue of the Interpretation Act 1978 section 17(2) and the Interpretation Act (NI) 1954 section 29.

This version sets out the Rules as amended to the present date: only those amendments which are recent or are otherwise important are noted. For the source of all amendments since 1980 see the ‘Red Book’ version.

At this stage the text of only certain forms is given in full. Others will be added in due course.

5. – (1) If claims in respect of two or more causes of action are included by a plaintiff in the same action or by a defendant in a counterclaim, or if two or more plaintiffs or defendants are parties to the same action, and it appears to the Court that the joinder of the causes of action or of parties, as the case may be, may embarrass or delay the trial or is otherwise inconvenient, the Court may order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient.
- (2) If it appears on the application of any party against whom a counterclaim is made that the subject-matter of the counterclaim ought for any reason to be disposed of by a separate action, the Court may order the counterclaim to be struck out or may order it to be tried separately or make such other order as may be expedient.

RsCJ Order 15 r.6 - Causes of action, counterclaims and parties

Misjoinder and nonjoinder of parties

6. - (1) No cause or matter shall be defeated by reason of the misjoinder or nonjoinder of any party, and the Court may in any cause or matter determine the issues or questions in dispute so far as they affect the rights and interests of the persons who are parties to the cause or matter.

- (3) An application by any person for an order under paragraph (2) adding him as a party must, except with the leave of the Court, be supported by an affidavit showing his interest in the matters in dispute in the cause or matter or, as the case may be, the question or issue to be determined as between him and any party to the cause or matter.
- (4) No person shall be added as a plaintiff without his consent signified in writing or in such other manner as may be authorised.

In this paragraph "any relevant period of limitation" means a time limit under the Limitation Acts (Northern Ireland) 1958 to [1989].

- (6) The addition or substitution of a new party shall not be regarded as necessary for the purposes of paragraph (5)(a) unless the Court is satisfied that-
- (a) the new party is a necessary party to the action in that property is vested in him at law or in equity and the plaintiff's claim in respect of an equitable interest in that property is liable to be defeated unless the new party is joined, or
 - (b) the relevant cause of action is vested in the new party and the plaintiff jointly but not severally, or
 - (c) the new party is the Attorney General and the proceedings should have been brought by relator proceedings in his name, or
 - (d) the new party is a company in which the plaintiff is a shareholder and on whose behalf the plaintiff is suing to enforce a right vested in the company, or

(3) An amendment to correct the name of a party may be allowed under paragraph (2) notwithstanding that it is alleged that the effect of the amendment will be to substitute a new party if the Court is satisfied that the mistake sought to be corrected was a genuine mistake and was not misleading or such as to cause any reasonable doubt as to the identity of the party intending to sue or, as the case may be, intended to be sued.

 - (c) that the plaintiff's annual future pecuniary losses, as assessed by the court, are to be paid for the duration of the plaintiff's life, or for such other period as the court orders; and
 - (d) that the amount of the payments shall vary annually by reference to the retail prices index, unless the court orders otherwise under section 2(9) of the 1996 Act.
- (2) Where the court orders that any part of the award shall continue after the plaintiff's death, for the benefit of the plaintiff's dependants, the order must also specify the relevant amount and duration of the payments and how each payment is to be made during the year and at what intervals.
- (3) Where the court makes an order under paragraph (2), the order must also specify the relevant amount and duration of the payments and how each payment is to be made during the year and at what intervals.
- (4) Where an amount awarded under paragraph (1)(b) is to increase or decrease on a certain date, the order must also specify—

Assignment or charge

17. Where the court under section 2(6)(a) of the 1996 Act is satisfied that special circumstances makes an assignment or charge of periodical payments necessary, it shall in deciding whether or not to approve the assignment or charge, also have regard to;

Subsequent procedure

30. - (1) Subject to rules 31 and 32, where a party has begun proceedings for taxation in accordance with rule 29, the proper officer shall give to that party and to any other party entitled to be heard on the taxation not less than 14 days' notice of the day, time and place appointed for the taxation.

(2) Subject to rule 32, where a party has begun proceedings for taxation in accordance with rule 29, the proper officer shall as soon as practicable give notice to any other party whose costs are to be taxed in the proceedings of the period within which his bill of costs (together with all necessary papers and vouchers) are to be sent to the Taxing Master.

(3) A party whose costs are to be taxed (except a solicitor whose costs are to be taxed by virtue of an order made under Article 71F of the Solicitors (Northern Ireland) Order 1976) must within 7 days after beginning the proceedings for taxation or, as the case may be, receiving notice under paragraph (2),-

- (a) send a copy of his bill of costs to every other party entitled to be heard on the taxation, and
- (b) notify the proper officer that he has done so.

(4) Where in beginning or purporting to begin any taxation proceedings or at any stage in the course of or in connection with those proceedings, there has been a failure to comply with the requirements of this Order, whether in respect of time or in any other respect, the failure shall be treated as an irregularity and shall not nullify the taxation proceedings or any step taken in those proceedings.

(5) The Taxing Master may, on the ground that there has been such a failure as is mentioned in paragraph (4), and on such terms as he thinks just, set aside either wholly or in part the taxation proceedings or exercise his powers under this Order to make such order (if any) dealing with the taxation proceedings generally as he thinks fit.

(4) Where the Taxing Master decides to proceed under this and the following paragraphs of this rule, the proper officer shall send to each party entitled to be heard on the taxation (except the party whose bill it is) a notice requiring him to inform the proper officer within 14 days after receipt of the notice if he wishes to be heard on the taxation.

- (b) that the speedy completion of the taxation is necessary in the interests of any person concerned in the taxation, the proper officer shall enter the proceedings for taxation in a list kept for the purposes of this rule and shall forthwith give notice of the day and time appointed for the taxation to the party whose costs are to be taxed.

(2) A party whose costs are to be taxed in proceedings entered in the list referred to in paragraph (1) must not less than 4 days before the day appointed for the taxation send a copy of his bill of costs to every other party entitled to be heard on the taxation with a notice of the day and time appointed for the taxation.

(2) An application for the grant of leave under this rule must be supported by an affidavit

(4) The failure of a respondent to give notice of intention to contest the arbitration application or to enter an appearance shall not affect the applicant's duty to satisfy the Court that the order applied for should be made.

(5) This rule does not apply to—

- (a) applications under section 9 of the Arbitration Act to stay legal proceedings; or
- (b) subsequent arbitration applications.

(2) Where in such an action, being an action in personam, a defendant fails to lodge a preliminary act within the prescribed period, Order 19 rules 2 and 3 shall apply as if the defendant's failure to lodge the preliminary act within that period were a failure by him to serve a defence on the plaintiff within the period fixed by or under these rules for service thereof, and the plaintiff, if he has lodged a preliminary act may, subject to Order 77 rule 9, accordingly enter judgment against that defendant in accordance with the said rule 2 or the said rule 3, as the circumstances of the case require.

Disclosure of partners names

2. - (1) Any defendant to an action brought by partners in the name of a firm may serve on the plaintiffs or their solicitor a notice requiring them or him forthwith to furnish the defendant with a written statement of the names and places of residence of all the persons who were partners in the firm at the time when the cause of action accrued; and if the notice is not complied with the Court may order the plaintiffs or their solicitor to furnish the defendant with such a statement and to verify it on oath or otherwise as may be specified in the order, or may order that further proceedings in the action be stayed on such terms as the Court may direct.

(2) When the names of the partners have been declared in compliance with a notice or order given or made under paragraph (1), the proceedings shall continue in the name of the firm but with the same consequences as would have ensued if the persons whose names have been so declared had been named as plaintiffs in the writ.

Determination of questions, etc., without administration

2. - (1) An action may be brought for the determination of any question or for any relief which could be determined or granted, as the case may be, in an administration action and a claim need not be made in the action for the administration or execution under the direction of the Court of the estate or trust in connection with which the question arises or the relief is sought.

Judgments and orders in administration actions

5. - (1) A judgment or order for the administration or execution under the direction of the Court of an estate or trust need not be given or made unless in the opinion of the Court the questions at issue between the parties cannot properly be determined otherwise than under such a judgment or order.

(2) If no affidavit can be obtained in accordance with the last foregoing paragraph, the Master may, if he thinks fit having regard to the desirability of protecting the interests of any person who may be prejudiced by the will, accept evidence on affidavit from any person he may think fit to show that the signature on the will is in the handwriting of the deceased, or of any other matter which may raise a presumption in favour of the due execution of the will.

(3) If the Master, after considering the evidence-

Evidence as to terms, conditions and date of execution of will

(3) Where there is doubt as to the date on which a will was executed, the Master may require such evidence as he thinks necessary to establish the date.

Restrictions on admission of evidence

9. - (1) Except with the leave of the judge hearing any action or other proceeding relating to a patent, no evidence shall be admissible in proof of any alleged infringement, or of any objection to the validity, of the patent, if the infringement or objection was not raised in the particulars of infringements or objections, as the case may be.

(3) If any machinery or apparatus alleged to have been used before the priority date mentioned in rule 6(3)(b) is in existence at the date of service of the particulars of objections, no evidence of its user before that date shall be admissible unless it is proved that the party relying on such user offered, where the machinery or apparatus is in his possession, inspection of it to the other parties to the proceedings or, where it is not, used all reasonable endeavours to obtain inspection of it for those parties.

- (h) for the hearing, as a preliminary issue, of any question that may arise (including any question as to the construction of the specification or other documents), and otherwise as the Court thinks necessary or expedient for the purpose of defining and limiting the issues to be tried, restricting the number of witnesses to be called at the trial of any particular issue and otherwise securing that the case shall be disposed of, consistently with adequate hearing, in the most expeditious manner.

Where the evidence is directed to be given by affidavit, the deponents must attend at the trial for cross-examination unless, with the concurrence of the Court, the parties otherwise agree.

(3) On the hearing of a summons under this rule the Court shall consider, if necessary of its own motion, whether an independent scientific adviser should be appointed under rule 11 to assist the Court.

(4) No action for infringement of a patent or petition for the revocation of a patent shall be set down for trial unless and until a summons- under this rule in the action or proceedings has been taken out and the directions given on the summons have been carried out or the time fixed by the Court for carrying them out has expired.

(a) the Secretary of State shall not be required to serve that material or summary; but

(b) if the Secretary of State does not do so, at a hearing on notice the Court may—

(i) if it considers that the material or anything that is required to be summarised might be of assistance to the relevant party in relation to a matter under consideration by the court, direct that the matter is withdrawn from its consideration or that the Secretary of State makes such concessions or takes such other steps as the Court specifies, and

(ii) in any other case, direct that the Secretary of State shall not rely in the proceedings on that material or (as the case may be) on what is required to be summarised.

(8) The Court must give permission to the Secretary of State to withhold closed material where it considers that the disclosure of that material would be contrary to the public interest.

would cause information to be disclosed contrary to the public interest.

(3) Where the Secretary of State makes an application under paragraph (2), the Secretary of State must at the same time serve on the special advocate, if one has been appointed—

(a) a copy of the application; and

(b) a copy of the notice served on the Secretary of State pursuant to paragraph (1).

- (a) applied under rule 12 (sensitive material) for permission to withhold sensitive material; or
- (b) objected under rule 10(5)(b) (special advocate: communicating about proceedings) to a proposed communication by the special advocate.

(2) The Court shall fix a hearing for the relevant party, the Secretary of State and the special advocate to make oral representations, unless—

- (b) the Court has previously, in determining the application for a declaration under section 6 of the Act, found that the first condition in section 6 of the Act is met in relation to the same or substantially the same material and is satisfied that it would be just to give permission without a hearing;

(3) If the special advocate does not challenge the application or the objection, he or she must give notice of that fact to the Court, the relevant person and the Secretary of State no later than the end of—

- (a) 14 days after the date on which the relevant person or the Secretary of State serves on the special advocate the notice under rule 10(5)(b) or the material under rule 12 (2), or

(7) Where the Court gives permission to the relevant person to withhold sensitive material, the Court—

- (a) shall consider whether to direct the relevant person to serve a summary of that material on the specially represented party and the specially represented party's legal representative; but

(b) shall ensure that any such summary does not contain material the disclosure of which would be damaging to the interests of national security.

(8) If the Court is satisfied that—

(a) the relevant person does not intend to rely on sensitive material, and

(b) that material does not adversely affect the relevant person’s case or support the case of another party to the proceedings, the Court may direct that the relevant person must not rely in the proceedings on that material, without the Court first requiring the relevant person to serve a summary of that material on the specially represented party and the specially represented party’s legal representative.

(9) Where the Court has not given permission to the relevant person to withhold sensitive material from, or has directed the relevant person to serve a summary of that material on, the specially represented party and the specially represented party’s legal representative—

(a) the relevant person shall not be required to serve that material or summary; but

(b) if the relevant person does not do so, at a hearing on notice the Court may—

(i) if it considers that the material or anything that is required to be summarised might adversely affect the relevant person’s case or support the case of another party to the proceedings, direct that the relevant person is not to rely on such points in the relevant person’s case, or that the relevant person makes such concessions or takes such other steps as the Court may direct; and

(ii) in any other case, direct that the relevant person shall not rely in the proceedings on that material or (as the case may be) on what is required to be summarised.

(10) The Court shall give permission to the relevant person to withhold sensitive material where it considers that disclosure of that material would be damaging to the interests of national security.

(a) the respect in which that person has failed to comply with the direction;

(c) that the Court may proceed to determine the proceedings before it on the material before it if that person fails to comply with the direction within that time limit.

(2) Where a party or the special advocate fails to comply with the direction after such a notice, the Court may proceed in accordance with paragraph (1) (c).

Judgments

15.—(1) Where the Court gives judgment in any proceedings to which this Part applies, it may withhold any, or any part, of its reasons if and to the extent that it is not possible to give those reasons without disclosing information the disclosure of which would be damaging to the interests of national security.

(2) Where the judgment of the Court does not include the full reasons for its decision, the Court shall serve on the relevant person, the Secretary of State (where not the relevant person) and the special advocate a separate written judgment giving those reasons.

Application by the Secretary of State or relevant person for reconsideration of decision

16.—(1) If the Court proposes, in any proceedings to which this Order applies, to serve on a specially represented party—

(b) any written judgment;

then before the Court serves any such notice or judgment on the specially represented party, it shall first serve notice on the Secretary of State and, if the relevant person is not the Secretary of State, on the relevant person, of its intention to do so.

No. 10A

Notice to defendant in lender's action for possession of dwelling house

(O. 88, 4A)

[Heading as in Summons]

To [name of defendant]

General

This notice explains what you can do if you want the court to give you time to address the mortgage default in this application in which the plaintiff is seeking possession of residential premises by reason of your default. This notice does not deal with the procedure where you wish for any other reason to defend the plaintiff's claim or make a counterclaim. At the hearing the court will decide whether to make an order for possession and if so on what terms. In making that decision the court will take into account the information provided by the plaintiff and by you.

What are the court's powers to allow time to address mortgage default?

Under agreements not regulated under the Consumer Credit Act 1974

The court's powers are set out in detail in the Administration of Justice Act 1970 section 36 and the Administration of Justice Act 1973 section 8. Broadly if the court is satisfied you are likely to be able to remedy the default in payment by discharging within a reasonable time the relevant sum or sums (which in a mortgage involving payment by instalments normally means either the arrears of those instalments or the entire mortgage debt) the court may-adjourn the proceedings for a time to enable you to make payment; make an order for possession but suspend it on terms as to payment;

make an order for possession, but put a stay on it for a time to allow you to discharge the entire mortgage debt, normally by sale or remortgage of the premises;

where an order for possession has already been made but the circumstances have since changed, vary the terms or stay execution of the order.

Under agreements regulated under the Consumer Credit Act 1974

Broadly if the court is satisfied that it is just to do so having regard to the means of the debtor and any surety and the interests of the creditor it may-make a time order (an order providing for the payment of any sum due under either a regulated agreement or a security for that agreement by such instalments payable at such times as the court considers reasonable);

vary the terms of the regulated agreement or the mortgage or other security (for the purpose of a time order or any other order relating to a regulated agreement);

suspend or make conditional (for the same purpose) the operation of any order relating to the regulated agreement.

What steps should you take if you want the Court to exercise such powers on the hearing of the plaintiff's claim?

You should immediately consider taking the following steps -

(a) consulting a solicitor or taking other advice (e.g., from Housing Rights Service or a branch of the Citizens Advice Bureau);

(b) preparing (or having your advisers prepare) a detailed written budget setting out your income and outgoings and indicating the resources available to discharge the relevant sum or sums - you should complete the form of budget attached to this Notice, or a similar form, and bring it with you to the hearing;

(c) working out carefully what you consider to be your best realistic proposal to address the relevant sum or sums;

(d) if you intend to sell the mortgaged premises but have not yet found a purchaser, bringing with you a letter from an estate agent establishing-

(i) that the premises are on the market;

(ii) the asking price and whether it is realistic in the light of comparable prices in the area;

(iii) the ease or difficulty envisaged in the sale;

(iv) whether offers have been received; and

(v) the agent's opinion as to the likely timescale for entering into a contract;

(e) attending the hearing where you should be in a position to provide-

(i) an explanation for the default;

(ii) details of your financial and other relevant circumstances;

(iii) your best realistic proposal;

(f) bringing to the hearing documents to vouch details of your circumstances (for example, your current prospective salary, employment prospects and/or state benefits) together with a completed budget form and, where appropriate, documents relating to your endeavours to sell the premises or obtain a new loan on the security of the premises.

Your attention is drawn to the notes appended to this Notice.
